

Who owns what?

by Stephanie Shantz

Across

1. A legal agreement granting rights to Intellectual Property in exchange for payment
3. a common word for a product
5. give inventors the exclusive right to sell their inventions for a certain period of time
6. the overall image of a product that is composed of design, packaging, or labeling
7. a symbol or other design that identifies a product
8. a product created by human creativity that the law protects from unauthorized use by others
9. is one of the criteria of patentability
10. word or words used to represent a company or a product

Down

2. gives an originator the exclusive right to perform, publish, film or record literary, musical, or other artistic work including software programs
4. the misappropriation of intellectual property by another